"Let us fix our eyes on Jesus"

Discipleship... are you ready to take up the challenge?

I've been thinking about how to best conclude our series on 'discipleship' this Sunday... any suggestions? I'm not sure how to top the last couple of weeks. We've seen two individuals make the decision to be disciples by putting on Christ in baptism: Deb Darting, who wanted to re-commit her life to Christ, and Nicole Crim who wanted to become a child of God! Praise God! It doesn't get any better than that. The call to follow Jesus is a tough one. He never promises us that the road is going to be easy, but he DOES promise us that he'll walk it alongside us. What about you? Are you ready to move beyond the status quo? Are you ready to take up the call? Are you ready to drop those nets? Join us this Sunday and take the risk!

Many Thanks...

We want to thank everyone who was involved in another great year of summer camp out at Meribah! Our campers arrived home safe and sound Friday evening after a week filled with fun and activities all centered around God's Word! I especially want to thank Brad and Jenny for all of their work... we are so blessed to have them both here at Washington Street! To mention everyone by name would take up my entire page and I would probably leave someone out, so let me just say a great big THANK YOU to everyone! Andy tells me that it was a great week and he's already talking about next year and seeing all of his new friends from the Fernvale congregation again. What a blessing that our young people have this opportunity.

We are also glad to report that our Honduras Brigade arrived safely back in the state last Thursday evening. They brought a great report to us on Sunday of all the activities the Lord blessed them with during the week. What an answer to prayer! They were able to complete the construction of two houses, hosted a number of free health clinics, dispensed thousands of dollars worth of medications and visited with the children at Jovenes en Camino. They have brought back many wonderful pictures of their experience which they will be sharing with us soon. Look for them to be posted on the website this week! And thanks, Ricky, for bringing me back some coffee! I'm looking forward to next year.

Congregational Pot-Luck

Mark your calendars and fire up the casseroles! On Sunday, August 1st we're having a congregational pot-luck fellowship meal following Bible classes. We'll be honoring and thanking Isaiah Owens for his summer with us and wishing him well as he prepares to head back to school in the Fall. He's done such a fine job with us, I'm not sure we're going to let him go:)

*God bless,
Jim*

Hello Everyone,

The Youth Group is back from Camp Meribah. It was an AMESOME experience for all who went. The theme of the week was the Fruit of the Spirit and all the speakers did a great job teaching. We want to thank Mark and Laura Clark for sacrificing their time and spending it with us at camp. Also Trudy Mitchell for driving the bus for us and also helping serving the food.

My first experience at camp was wonderful. I had an AWESOME time getting to know the guys in my cabin and also all the other kids. The thing I liked the most of camp this year is that God’s LOVE was shown. I cannot begin to put in words how God was working at camp this year. New friendships were established and the ones we already had were strengthened. My prayer is that we continue to live in God’s Love. Counselors and C.I.T’s you did a Amazing job last week. We wanted to have mentors for the kids and you were just that. God is very pleased.

Tuesday night is Movie Night. Be at the church at 5:30. We have not decided on a movie yet but bring a movie you think that would be good for that night. Lets remember we are going to be at the church, so lets keep that in mind. The softball game has been cancelled on Tuesday so we will figure out something as a group when we get here Tuesday.

Lets remember Mayberry St. Kid’s Club on Friday @ 9am and also the well @ 6pm. They have been a great success, so please come out and support them both.

Final Thought:

How many people have you shared God’s love with? Have you been living in God’s love so much that people can see God in you? Well that’s what God put us here for to show his love to a world that hates him. I know we all are not perfect but we can strive everyday to make sure that God’s Love is being shared to all mankind.

I love you guys Dearly.

In His Love,
IsaiahA.Owens
