A Great Start!

What a great start to Vacation Bible School on Sunday night! We had great fun getting things started with the wonderful story of David & Goliath! I especially enjoyed watching all the children "flying" around the building in their capes for our "Super-Heroes of the Bible" them. What fun watching them in exuberant song, singing to God and having a great time! Over 60 were present for the adult class, as well. Come out every night through Wednesday as our super-heroes continue to do battle against the evil voice dude!

Happy Fathers' Day... "Hats off to Dads!"

This Sunday is Fathers' Day and I've noticed that Fathers often get the short end of the stick when it comes to celebrating their day. A big deal is always made of Mothers on "Mothers' Day" and I've heard many a "Mother's Day" sermon... even preached a few! But I can't remember when the last time was that I preached a "Father's Day" lesson! So, this Sunday, we're going to take a short break from our Discipleship series to consider Fathers... to honor them and to thank them for all that they do. Be here Sunday for "Hats off to Dads!"

An Important Encouragement...

Wouldn't it be great if we knew when an emergency would happen? That way we could have plenty of time to get ready, call our family, and friends and wait for things to return to normal. Unfortunately, emergencies just don't happen like that.

Like most days, I left home at 5:30 am on Tuesday, November 3, to go to work. That day I never made it to work. I spent the next 21 days on the trauma floor at Vanderbilt Hospital where they use a lot of blood. If people had not donated blood, my life could have been at risk.

With the healing hand of God, my family and friends, many prayers and the American Red Cross, I am alive today!

I'm asking each of you to please consider donating blood when the American Red Cross comes to Washington Street. One simple act can make a huge difference and save a life.

Thank you,
Eric Yatsko

A FATHER'S TEN PERCEPTS

He makes himself responsible for his children's behavior.
 He is never blinded by love to his child's faults—he knows he serves his child's interest best by recognizing and correcting weakness.
 He makes his child feel secure.
 He shares in his child's activities.
 He has his child's complete confidence.
 He is always available to help solve youthful problems
 He doesn't demand filial devotion—he wins it.
 He recognizes and accepts, as largely his, the responsibility for his child's mental and spiritual development..
 He contributes to making the home his child's haven.
 He strives to be the man his child thinks he is.

Living the Life -

Vacation Bible School got off to a super start Sunday. Be sure to join us Monday through Wednesday night from 5:30 – 8:00 PM for a fun and exciting look at some more super heroes of the Bible!

Sandwiches needed. On June 16th we will be serving sandwiches for supper to our VBS attendees. We are in need of volunteers who can bring sandwiches for our meal that night. See Brad or email him at brad@washingtonstreetchurch.org.

Mission Fort Worth – The mission team for Mission Fort Worth leaves this Saturday, June 19th at 7 AM and won't return until 9 PM Saturday, June 26th. Please keep us in your prayers as we endeavor to teach and live out the teachings of Christ with the children of Fort Worth's Southside community.

Mission Trip Needs – We are badly in need of individually-packaged snacks (fruit snacks, crackers, chips, etc) and juice boxes for the children we will be working with in Fort Worth, TX. We will need enough to supply 45 kids with three days worth of snacks. Any donations of this kind can be left outside Brad's office door.

Mayberry St. Kid's Club – We will meet at 9 AM Friday at the church for Kid's Club. We will return to the church by 2 PM. Volunteers for this ministry need to bring a servant heart and $6 for lunch.

The Well – Our small group Bible study meets on Friday night from 6-8 PM. We will meet on the third floor. Please enter the building at the east side stairwell door.

Scholarships Needed – Thank you to all of you who have given already. Your gift helps bring a young person closer to God. Remember, $120 will provide a scholarship to a deserving student for either Camp Meribah or Mission Fort Worth. However, donations of any size will be gladly accepted.
