Café Hope for... Nashville- May 28th

Many have asked about how we might help out folks in the Nashville area who were affected by the flooding two weeks ago. Even though the waters have receded, the real, hard work of cleaning up the devastation is just beginning and will continue for some time! How can we help? Once again our young people are springing into action! We are working on putting together another "Café Hope"... this time for Nashville residents... on Friday night, May 28th. Plans are only now beginning, but mark your calendars, be praying, and plan to be here for another night of music and fun all to raise money for Nashville's Disaster Relief. If you have an act and would like to perform, contact Brad Sullivan.

RCA Baccalaureate

Riverside Christian Academy would like to invite you to their annual Baccalaureate Service this Sunday, May 16th at 2:00pm here at our building. We have had the honor of hosting this event since RCA's first graduating class in 2008. This year, there are seventeen bright young men and ladies who make up the senior class. I've had the privilege of teaching the Seniors' Bible class and let me tell you... they are an absolute joy to teach! I have absolutely loved it! We have had so much fun this year and I am SO proud of each and every one of them. God has BIG plans for them and I am so glad to have gotten to know them this year. We've talked about some pretty hefty subjects, too... Christian ethics & good decision-making. We covered tough topics like abortion, euthanasia, capital punishment, etc. This semester we've been talking about God's purpose for our lives and discussed the importance of Worship, Discipleship, Service and most recently about Evangelism. Let me encourage you to be with us Sunday afternoon for a time of celebration and thanking God for the incredible way he has blessed each of these young people.

The Call to Discipleship

I have been challenged by our Vision team to lead the congregation in a study of DISCIPLESHIP... and I can't tell you how excited I am to begin this Sunday with "The Call to Discipleship!" When Jesus gathered folks around to hear him teach, he called them to become disciples... not church-goers or even to be "nice people." He called them to something greater... to an apprenticeship. He asked them to be his students with himself as the master teacher. He called them to take on his way of life, his attitude, his mind and his purpose. What does this look like today? Are we committed disciples of Jesus? If so, how can we grow to be even more so? And if not... we'll ask the most important question of all... "How can I become one?" Join us as we kick off this new six-week study together THIS Sunday!

SYMPATHY

We express our sympathy to the family of Josh Landtroop, great nephew of our Margarete Lane. Josh's death was attributed to drowning in the Nashville area last weekend. Funeral services were conducted Friday in Lewisburg.

THANKS!

Many thanks to Adam Smith, John and Thomas Osteen, Blake Johnson and Chris Moore for coming to my home and cleaning my windows in the den, cleaning out gutters and my flower bed. What a gift and blessing to have these young men in our church family to help any of us in need with chores we are no longer able to do.
