

WASHINGTON STREET CHURCH OF CHRIST
ADULT BIBLE CLASS OFFERINGS
FEBRUARY 7TH, 2010

SUNDAY MORNING CLASSES

⇒ Ray Hillis (Room 119)

“Facing Your Giants”

David. You could read his story and wonder what God saw in him. His life has little to offer the unstained, straight-A saint. He fell as often as he stood, stumbled as often as he conquered. But for those who know the sound of a Goliath, David gives this reminder: Focus on Giants---You Stumble Focus on God---Your Giants Tumble. If you're ready to face your giants, let his story inspire you. The same God who helped him will help you.

⇒ Jim Black (Room 126)

“Making Right-Headed Choices in a Wrong Headed-World”

How do we make the choices we make? How do we know right from wrong? Is there such a thing as right and wrong? We will explore over the course of the next quarter why we make the choices we do and what factors influence those choices. We will seek to think “Christianly” about some of the ethical dilemmas of our time and seek wisdom in scripture to guide us in our search.

⇒ Brad Sullivan (Room 204)

“Parenting Teens in Post-Modern Times”

Texting, Twilight, and Twitter. An in-depth look at the ever-changing culture that permeates the lives of our teens and how to respond to it in Christ-informed ways.

⇒ Ron Kerbo (Room 124)

“Managing God's Money in God's Way”

The class is intended to provide scriptural insight into God's desire for our stewardship of the monetary blessings he has provided each of us. We will also seek a practical understanding of how money works both in our economy and in our lives. Finally, we will learn to use some simple tools to help us bring our use of God's money into line with our understanding of His desire for our lives. Put simply, we hope to help one another learn to Manage God's Money in God's Way and to encourage one another to put that understanding into practice so that we can be a blessing to our families, our congregation, and our community, all for the glory of God.

⇒ Mark Clark (Room 110)

“Difficult Teachings of Jesus and His Half Brothers”

Interested in studying the words of Jesus, James and Jude?

Anxious to apply Jesus' teachings to your life? If so, this class is for you! The words and concepts are simple, but don't be deceived. Living out these teachings is what's difficult! Caution: this class may be life changing.

⇒ Ricky Pierce (Room 221)

“From There to Here”

Our class is a little more than a verse by verse biblical study. We strive to look at related scripture, historical writings, scholarly input, and archaeological findings to help us understand God's Word. This exegesis helps us to get a better understanding so we can apply what we read and learn to the present day. Our studies, for the most part, are in the New Testament. Open discussion and class participation is always welcomed.

⇒ Rob Tittle (Room 206)

“The Gospel Accounts: A Chronological Harmony”

Using the gospel of Luke as our starting off point, we will continue to explore the life & teachings of Jesus as they are recorded for us in each of the four gospels. From these four diverse vantage points, we read the one story of God's unique, one and only Son. Join us as we explore the life of our Savior together.

⇒ Richard Waggoner & Joe Cummins (Covenant Manor)

“Gospel Advocate Series”

Richard and Joe share inspiring messages based on lessons from “The Gospel Advocate” with the residents and visitors of Covenant Manor.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT CLASSES

⇒ Marcheta Darnell (Room 110)

“Christian Living for Women”

This class will attempt to be a support group for women who deal with the daily stresses of trying to meet expectations from our families, jobs, and friends while trying to live a life that glorifies God. We will discuss topics that address: encouraging each other, daily stresses, prayer, joy, knowing God’s word and will for my life, contentment, giving and receiving God’s gifts, and acknowledging God in our lives. We will always pray over concerns that we have and praise God for the celebrations that He gives us each week.

⇒ Stacy Johnson (Room 126)

“Men of Faith”

Each week we come together as men who share many similarities as well as differences; however, the one overriding similarity is our faith in God our Creator. Currently we are doing an in-depth study of the men Jesus chose to be his messengers after his earthly departure—His Apostles. At the conclusion of this study we will delve into the book “Disciplines of a Godly Man” this study promises to bring about many thought provoking discussions. Men of all ages are welcome!!

⇒ Anne Underwood (Room 222)

“Verse by Verse”

A women’s group discussion study of the Bible taken verse by verse, chapter by chapter, book by book to be able to understand the teachings found within its pages.

⇒ Bill Davis (Room 221)

“Paul’s Epistles”

Join us for an in depth study of the writings of the Apostle Paul. This is a class that is already in progress and is designed for anyone desiring to learn more about Paul and the people he encouraged as well as the people he continues to encourage.

⇒ Jim Black (Room 206)

“Digging Deeper”

This class is designed for anyone who wants to take the Bible and dig more deeply into the writings found within its covers. We will start with the book of Acts! Who knows where we will go from there?
